DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1 and 3-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Gersbach et al.

The ring oscillator with three inverters, as disclosed by Gersbach et al, discloses use in a PLL with phase detector(see figure 3 for VCO). A first MOS(Q9), and first and second capacitors(Q17,18) are shown. The additive control means formed by the clamping action of the capacitors.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103© and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

5. Claims 6-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gersbach et al.

The ring oscillator with three inverters, as disclosed by Gersbach et al, discloses use in a PLL with phase detector(see figure 3 for VCO). A first MOS(Q9), and first and second capacitors(Q17,18) are shown. The additive control means formed by the clamping action of the capacitors.

The reference does not highlight the fact that PLL's also make use of frequency comparators that provide coarse tuning which then changes to fine tuning by way of the phase detection control. This is notoriously well known in the art. Also, a feedback divider or reference divider allows for specific frequency control as is conventional too in PLL systems.

In light of the above it would have been recognized by one of ordinary skill in the art to have made use of the frequency comparison and divider elements in the broadly described PLL of Gersbach et al to generate a desired PLL synthesizer output as is notoriously well known in the art.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claim 2 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
